III International Eurasia Humanism Research Group Research and Training Workshop

Call for papers

The Eurasia Humanism Research Group, from the University of Salamanca launches a Call for papers for the upcoming Workshop that will be hosted on 27th and 28th May 2021, in Salamanca (Spain).

The communications must be related to one of the thematic lines of the Workshop, subdivided into specific disciplinary panels:

- Block 1: Water and/or its relationship with women in Eurasia
  - o Panel: Women and Water from the Anthropology of Folklore
  - o Panel: Women and Water in Art
  - o Panel: The relationship of women and the water element in contemporary pop culture
  - o Panel: Women and Water in Contemporary Literature
- Block 2: Globalized Educational Itineraries
  - o Single panel
- Block 3: History and Classical Texts of Eurasia
  - o Single panel

The communications can be made in Spanish or English and will have a duration of 15 minutes each, and can be presented in person or through a video that will be broadcast in streaming.

The applications received will be evaluated by the Scientific Committee of the Research Group through the blind peer review procedure.

Abstracts should be no longer than 250 words, not including bibliography. They should always be sent in English and/or Spanish and specify the thematic panel in which they want to be presented. The deadline for the reception of abstracts will be Monday, January 11th, 2021, at 00.00 hours Spanish peninsular time, being communicated the acceptance of those selected on January 18th, 2021. Abstracts should be sent to the following e-mail address:

eurasia.communication@gmail.com

Those whose abstracts have been accepted must register for the training course, thus receiving double certification (of the paper and of the course). The registration period will begin tentatively on January 18, 2021 and will end on February 28, 2021. The one-time registration fee is 40€. More information about the registration process will be provided soon.
